

Green Dots for Faculty

- Believe that rape, abuse, and stalking are unacceptable and say it out loud
- Assign developmentally appropriate projects that focus on prevention
- Assign books and papers about violence prevention
- Tell students you are a safe person to talk to
- Get training on warning signs of perpetration and victimization and respond when you see them
- Talk to colleagues about green dot
- Coordinate faculty inservices with local service providers
- Post green dot materials in your classroom
- Work with administration to ensure strong violence prevention and response policies
